

Yale First Nation Government

April 25, 2018

JOB POSTING: CASUAL, ON-CALL HOMEMAKER

START DATE: IMMEDIATELY

SALARY: $15/hour

LOCATION: Yale to Ruby Creek, British Columbia – MUST HAVE RELIABLE TRANSPORTATION

POSITION SUMMARY

Yale First Nation is hiring a CASUAL, ON-CALL Homemaker to help with basic housecleaning for clients needing assistance. You must be physically able to perform the duties as listed below. Reliability is a MUST - last minute cancellations strongly affect the care of our community members.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES MAY INCLUDE:

- General House Cleaning (e.g. dishes; sweeping and washing floors; washing bathroom sink, tub and toilet; laundry; making beds; etc.)
- Meal planning and preparation
- Other household upkeep

SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS

- Physically able to perform housecleaning duties
- Reliable vehicle and driver's license required
- No formal education requirements. This is not a Health Care Worker position but some clients may be quite ill and you should be comfortable in this environment.
- Must be able to work independently and as part of a team.
- Must be comfortable around pets and children.
- Confidentiality is key for this position and you will be asked to sign a declaration of confidentiality to protect our community members.

HOW TO APPLY

This position will remain opened until an appropriate candidate is found. Please provide your cover letter and resume. Email your application to health@yalefirstnation.ca or drop off at 314 Hudson Bay Street, Hope, BC.