

JOB POSTING: Qualark Hydroacoustics Counting Facility Fisheries Field Technician

Duration of Position: July through October, 2018

Rate and Hours of Pay: Full-time, wage dependent upon experience and qualifications

Application Deadline: Friday, May 25, 2018

Essential Qualifications:

- Secondary school diploma or an acceptable combination of education, training and/or experience
- Efficient when using PC-based Windows XP or Windows 7 operating system and Microsoft Office (Word and Excel)
- Knowledge of safety procedures related to field equipment and field activities
- Ability to perform work safely, work effectively independently and as a team member
- Excellent oral and written communication skills, interpersonal skills, flexibility, reliability and good common sense/judgement
- Driver's license and vehicle or otherwise dependable way get to the Qualark facility for every shift

Favourable Qualifications:

- Successful completion of post-secondary training in fisheries or other relevant biological or natural resource science(s)
- Experience in conducting stock assessments of Fraser River salmonids knowledge of the biology of Pacific Salmon
- Experience working in and around Fraser River
- Experience analyzing data and preparing summary reports using MS Excel, Access and Word
- Experience analyzing stock assessments and preparing technical or scientific reports
- Experience in data management and database design
- Proficient in the operation and maintenance of power driven (jet and propeller) vessels
- Swift Water Rescue Training, DFO Jet Boat Training, Air Egress Training
- Possession and Acquisition Firearms License, Bear Awareness Training, DFO Non-Enforcement Firearms Training

Operational Requirements:

- Working overtime, weekends and variable hours (ie. Night shift) as required to meet operational needs
- Working in and around swift water environments
- Participation in periods of strenuous physical work, associated with field activities and equipment maintenance

Interested applicants must apply Friday, May 25, 2018 at 4 p.m. with a cover letter, resume, and professional references. Please indicate clearly in your covering letter how your experience and qualifications meet the requirements of the position.

Please send your application to admin@yalefirstnation.ca with HIRING COMMITTEE: FISHERIES TECHNICIAN in the Subject Line. You may also drop off your application package to Elsie Kipp at the YFN Government Office at 314 Hudson Bay Street, Hope, BC. Thank you in advance for your application. Please note only applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.